

Information COVID -19 (7) clarification

Following the meeting with department presidents , the following additional decisions were made:

1. Remote classes start formally in a week, that is, on the next Wednesday, March 18th, according to the established schedule (it is understood by remote classes the following: classes by videoconference or other electronic alternatives).
2. All those responsible for courses, should publish until monday 16th, the functioning scheme that will be used from the 18th on, in order to inform the students in a timely manner.

I recall that doubts of a technical nature should be addressed to:
