

Information COVID -19 (26)

To the entire IST community,

- At the moment, every day hundreds of families mourn those who leave unexpectedly;
- At the moment that thousands of health professionals fall from physical and psychological fatigue to help those who need them;
- At the moment when hundreds of thousands of Portuguese are on the threshold of subsistence for losing their income; any behavior that aims to obtain proper benefits, taking advantage of this situation, is unacceptable.

Thus, in what concerns the circumstances in which the current period of evaluations is taking place, due to the dramatic moment the country is going through, any attempt of evaluation fraud will be investigated considering all the special aggravating circumstances of disciplinary responsibility that may lead, namely, to the maximum penalty provided for in the disciplinary regulations for students of the University of Lisbon, i.e. the “ban on attending the University (...) up to 5 years”.
